

REBA 2019 SPRING CONFERENCE

Monday, May 6th

7:30 AM – 2:45 PM

Four Points by Sheraton
1125 Providence Turnpike
Norwood, MA 02062

Luncheon Keynote Speaker

SACHA PFEIFFER

A print and broadcast journalist, Sacha Pfeiffer is a reporter for NPR's national investigative team, and an occasional guest host for some of NPR's national programs.

Previously, Pfeiffer was a longtime reporter for The Boston Globe, where she was best known for her work on its investigative Spotlight team, whose stories on the Catholic Church's cover-up of clergy sex abuse won the 2003 Pulitzer Prize for Public Service, among other honors.

That reporting is the subject of the movie "Spotlight," which won the 2016 Oscar for Best Picture.

Pfeiffer was a senior reporter and host of "All Things Considered" and "Radio Boston" at WBUR in Boston, where she won a national 2012 Edward R. Murrow Award for broadcast reporting. While at WBUR, she was also a guest host for NPR's nationally syndicated "On Point" and "Here & Now."

From 2004-2005, Pfeiffer was a John S. Knight journalism fellow at Stanford University, where she studied at Stanford Law School. She is a co-author of the book "Betrayal: The Crisis in the Catholic Church" and has taught journalism at Boston University's College of Communication.

She has a bachelor's degree in English and history, magna cum laude, and a master's degree in education, both from Boston University, as well as an honorary doctorate of humane letters from Cooper Union.
