

THE HON. PETER W. KILBORN (RET.)

- Judge Kilborn served as Chief of Justice of the Land Court from 1996 until his retirement in February 2003. He served as an Associate Justice of the court from 1989 to 1996. While serving as a judge, he chaired the Supreme Judicial Court's Committee to Review the Rules of Judicial Conduct and appeared many times as a faculty member on forums sponsored by bar associations and Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education relating to zoning, subdivision and other real estate-related matters.
- Judge Kilborn graduated magna cum laude from Harvard College in 1955, served two years in the United States Army and graduated from Harvard Law School in 1960. He was admitted to the bar in 1960. He practiced law at the Boston firms of Tyler & Reynolds and Mintz, Levin & Cohn, and then from 1968, until appointed to the Land Court, at Rackemann, Sawyer & Brewster in Boston.
- He became a partner in that firm in 1972 and served for many years as its Managing Director. His practice as a lawyer was concentrated in all aspects of real estate law, including title-related issues, leasing, mortgage and bond financing, subdivision, zoning, environmental, and other regulatory matters, including work for major educational and medical institutions in the Boston area.
- Judge Kilborn has been a member of the Real Estate Bar Association and The Abstract Club for many years. He has served as a member of the Association's Title Standards Committee.

Mediator

Arbitrator

ARTHUR P. KREIGER, ESQ.

- Mr. Kreiger, co-founder of Anderson & Kreiger LLP, has more than 25 years of experience practicing environmental and land use law as a litigator, advocate, counselor and mediator. His areas of expertise include oil and hazardous material contamination, wetlands protection, permitting, environmental impact review, environment insurance, zoning (including agriculture, religious and educational uses and day care), subdivision control and other local permitting and regulation, and other environmental and land use matters.
- For nearly 20 years, Art has successfully mediated cases through DEP, court panels, the Massachusetts Office of Dispute Resolution and privately. He has taught Advanced Environmental Law, addressed Massachusetts judges on the management of complex environmental cases for the Flaschner Judicial Institute, and written and lectured extensively to the legal and business audiences on a variety of topics. He co-chaired the Steering Committee and the Litigation Committee of the Boston Bar Association's Environmental Law Section, and currently co-chairs REBA's Environmental Committee.
- A cum laude graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, Art earned his JD with honors from Columbia Law School. Over the past several years, he has been consistently recognized by his colleagues as a Super Lawyer (Boston Magazine), a Leader in his Field (Chambers USA) and a Best Lawyer in America (Best Lawyer).

Mediator