

THE HON. MEL L. GREENBERG (RET.)

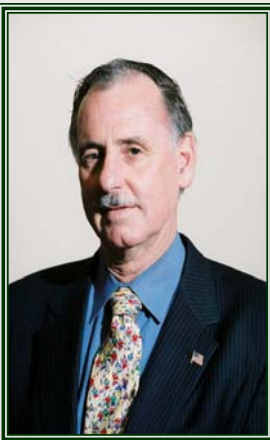

- Judge Greenberg served on the Appeals Court bench from 1990 to 2007 after many years of experience on the Trial Court bench. He served on the District Court bench from 1977 to 1983, in the District Court's Appellate Division from 1980 to 1983 and on the Superior Court bench from 1983 to 1990. Prior to 1977 he practiced law in Worcester. A magna cum laude graduate of Clark University, he received his J.D. from Boston University School of Law and served in the Judge Advocate General Staff of the U.S. Army Reserve.
- Judge Greenberg is a member of the Massachusetts Judges' Conference, the American Law Institute (ALI) and the New England Appellate Judges' Conference. He has also served as chair of the BBA's Bench Bar Committee and as a faculty member of the National Judicial College in Reno, Nevada.

Mediator

Arbitrator

Case Evaluator

MICHAEL P. HEALY, ESQ.

- Mr. Healy practices law in the areas of business and corporate, probate and administration, residential and commercial real estate, environmental, zoning and municipal law matters. In private practice since 1971, Mr. Healy contributes to many professional and civic organizations. As a member of the American Bar Association, he has served on the Business, Property and Tax Sections. He served as a member of the Massachusetts Bar Association's Board of Delegates and the Association's Business, Property and Real Estate Sections. He is a past president of the Real Estate Bar Association, a past member of its Title, Forms and Practice Standards Committees and a past chair of its Nominating Committee.
- He received a BSEE from Michigan Technological University and earned his JD at Suffolk Law School. Mr. Healy is a respected author and lecturer and has participated in numerous educational programs relating to various aspects of real estate law practice.

→ Some of his recent works published in Lawyers Weekly, Banker & Tradesman and The Conveyancer (respectively) include "Public Service Corporations vs. Municipal Zoning", "IRS Targets Real Estate Attorneys", "The Proposed Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act", "Real Estate Broker Commission Law Clarified", and "Selected Tax Issues Concerning Commercial Real Estate". He has lectured on subjects ranging from mortgage loan inspections to estate and investment planning.

Mediator

Arbitrator

Case Evaluator