

REBA Mentoring Program

Any REBA lawyer member is welcome to serve as a real estate mentor or may sign up to become a mentee. REBA's Mentoring Program is intended to assist members who are new to the practice of real estate law. Our mentors are experienced real estate lawyers who are committed to providing newer lawyers with guidance to help them in their professional development.

The REBA mentor will be available to discuss real estate related matters, and to provide guidance. Our mentoring program is intended to be flexible and informal, and to develop collegiality between the participants. The parties may meet, talk over the telephone, or communicate by e-mail, as they choose. REBA mentors agree to serve for a period of six months.

◆ Guidelines ◆

◆ Objective: The REBA Mentoring Program is available to REBA lawyer members who are new to the practice of real estate law. The program is intended to help such members develop professionally by providing access to an experienced real estate lawyer who can provide guidance and direction within the program guidelines.

◆ Mentor Qualifications: REBA mentors are experienced real estate lawyers who volunteer their time to help newer colleagues in their professional development. Many of our mentors are active REBA members, frequent lecturers at continuing legal education seminars, and highly regarded within the practice area.

◆ Procedures and Guidelines: Mentors agree to serve for a period of six months. The Program Administrator will try to pair lawyers based on their professional and personal interests and the geographical proximity of their practices. Once paired, the parties are free to interact in any manner that meets their needs and interests (i.e. occasional meetings, by telephone, e-mail, etc.).
