

Construction & Contract Law Attorney

MARCUS, ERRICO, EMMER & BROOKS, P.C.
BRAINTREE

---

Immediate opening for a candidate with 5-7 years of construction and contract law experience who is seeking an exceptional opportunity to do sophisticated and varied work. This position plays a prominent role in our practice with potential opportunity for partnership. Must have strong drafting, negotiation and client service skills, with broad and substantial experience with complex construction and commercial real estate agreements, including AIA contracts and contract administration. Experience in construction litigation, and/or environmental matters involving groundwater discharge permits, waste water treatment plants, and wetlands is also desirable.

Marcus, Errico, Emmer & Brooks, P.C. is an established and prominent law firm located in Braintree, MA, with a substantial and growing practice representing condominium associations, developers and real estate financial institutions throughout New England. We are looking for a candidate who is driven, personable, highly motivated, and willing to branch out into all facets of real estate law and who wants to be part of our team. Admission to practice in Rhode Island and New Hampshire is a plus.
