Mission: Women's Lunch Place inspires hope and supports the development of self-sustaining skills for women experiencing hunger, homelessness, and poverty. We create a safe, welcoming day shelter community in which we respect the dignity of our guests. We build trusting relationships to provide individualized, integrated services focused on nutrition, health, housing, and economic empowerment.

Food Service Manager
& past "Chopped"
contestant

Sherry Hughes has been the Chef and Kitchen Manager at Women's Lunch Place since 2015. She is tasked with planning and overseeing the preparation of over 100,000 meals each year, networking and creating original programming with local chefs and restaurants, and representing the organization in various media features.

In November of 2019, Sherry competed on the Food Network program "Chopped." She has also been featured in articles in the Boston Globe and Edible Magazine. Sherry considers Women's Lunch Place "a magical place where I get to do what I love in a way that truly helps others."

Sherry loves to travel—mostly to places near the ocean—with her husband Barry. They live with their dog Dash Riprock in Fitchburg.
