

Full-time Associate Attorney

ABOUT THE FIRM:

Hill Law is a boutique law firm, providing personalized attention and innovative legal strategies to clients large and small, from big cities to small neighborhood groups. The firm has several practice specialties. Specifically, Hill Law attorneys represent municipalities and private clients in evaluating, permitting, or opposing real estate development projects. Our attorneys are experts in Massachusetts zoning and planning law, the Subdivision Control Law, the Wetlands Protection Act, and Chapter 40B. We regularly appear before local boards and commissions, and represent clients in land use and environmental matters in state administrative appeals and in state and federal court litigation. Hill Law attorneys also represent municipal and private clients in tax lien foreclosure cases in the Land Court, and bankruptcy matters on behalf of creditors. Our attorneys are also actively engaged in their own communities, having served on planning and zoning boards, conservation commissions, and advisory panels.

ABOUT THE POSITION:

Hill Law is seeking a first-year associate to manage tax lien foreclosure actions in the Land Court. There will also be opportunities to participate in land use and environmental litigation matters in state courts and administrative agencies. This is a full-time, in person position. Our office is located at 6 Beacon Street, Boston, MA.

Salary Range: $80,000 - $90,000

Benefits: Health Insurance, Dental Insurance, Retirement Plan.

Please send resumes and cover letters to kbaptista@danhilllaw.com.