

LITIGATION ASSOCIATE

The firm of Phillips & Angley seeks an associate to join its real estate, land use, and zoning litigation practice group. Qualified candidates ideally will have basic knowledge and experience in zoning, planning, and land use permitting and litigation, title research, and civil litigation practice and procedure. Excellent writing, research, and communication skills required. The ability to work collaboratively in a small, boutique, fast-paced office is a must. To apply, please submit: cover letter, resume, writing sample, and law school transcript to rhopkins@phillips-angley.com.