

Residential Real Estate Attorney

NEWTON

OneLaw is a growing law firm located in Newton dedicated to the personal legal needs of families and individuals. We are seeking an attorney to represent clients in residential real estate matters and who is also a title agent.

Qualified candidates must have several years of experience and not require any training in the field. The ideal candidate already has a good reputation and book of business, but is seeking to expand their presence in a new venture.

Whoever is hired must work with OneLaw only. Pay is commensurate with the attorney's amount of billable services. The position does not include benefits at this time.

Interested candidates should send a cover letter and resume to:

Peter Hahn
