

DAVID E. WILSON, ESQ.

Mediator | Arbitrator | Case Evaluator

David Wilson, a partner at Corwin & Corwin LLP in Woburn, practices exclusively in the field of construction law, representing subcontractors and suppliers, general contractors and construction managers, sureties, designers and owners, in matters ranging from general advice to trials in district and state courts.

David has lectured and participated in numerous classes and seminars on construction law with Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education, Suffolk University Law School, MBA, BBA and REBA, and with various trade groups, including the Associated Subcontractors of Massachusetts for which the firm is general counsel. He has also drafted significant legislative bills pertinent to construction, a number of which have been enacted into law.

In addition to REBA, he is an active member of the BBA, a former co-chair of its Construction Law Committee and Real Estate Section, and a former co-chair and present member of its Education Committee. He is also active in a number of charitable organizations. He is President of Team Heart, Inc., an international non-governmental organization which travels each year to Rwanda to perform life-saving open heart surgeries while helping the country develop its own cardiac surgery program; he is a Director of The Circuit Theatre Company, a talented group of young people that has become one of the most innovative companies in Boston; and he is a long time participant in the Pan Mass Challenge, a 200 mile cycle ride that has raised over $400 million for the Jimmy Fund of the Dana Farber Cancer Institute.

Mr. Wilson received his J.D. from Boston University School of Law, and his A.B. from Brown University.
