REBA Summary of Qualifications:

Deayza-Marie Peebles is a Juris Doctor candidate at New England Law | Boston (Class of 2028) with a strong foundation in legal research, case management, and courtroom procedure. She has practical experience as a Foreclosure Legal Assistant at Crawford & von Keller, LLC, where she supported trial preparation, managed high-volume case files, and coordinated with court officials and opposing counsel to ensure compliance with procedural requirements.

At New England Law, Deayza-Marie serves as Vice President of the Real Estate Law Society and as the 1L Representative for the Business Law Society, where she contributes to organizational leadership and student engagement initiatives. She is also an active member of the Black Law Students Association, Fashion Law Association, and First-Generation Students Program, demonstrating her commitment to community, professional development, and diverse areas of legal practice.

Her undergraduate career at the University of South Carolina reflects strong academic achievement and leadership, graduating cum laude with consistent Dean's and President's List honors. She held leadership roles at Team Captain for the Dance Marathon Organization and Philanthropy Director for the Carolina-Clemson Blood Drive, where she organized large-scale initiatives and fostered community involvement. Her additional experience as a Teaching Assistant and Campaign Research Assistant highlights her ability to communicate effectively, conduct detailed research, and support collaborative environments.

Deayza-Marie brings a detail-oriented, organized, and client-focused approach to her work, with a growing interest in real estate law and a dedication to professional integrity and impactful legal advocacy.
