

TAISHA N. STURDIVANT, ESQ.

Sullivan & Worcester
One Post Office Square
Boston, MA 02109
tsturdivant@sullivanlaw.com
(617) 338-2959

Taisha Sturdivant is a real estate associate in Sullivan's Boston office. Her practice focuses on affordable housing and community development issues, including Low-Income Tax Credits, civil rights and regulatory compliance matters.

Taisha has considerable professional and volunteer experience, including work with FamilyAid Boston, Another Course to College, the AIDS Action Committee of Massachusetts and the Preservation of Affordable Housing organization. During law school, she served as a Supreme Judicial Court Rule 3:03 Certified Student Attorney in the Juvenile Rights Advocacy Project and the Civil Litigation Clinic.

Taisha is the 2018 recipient of the Outstanding Young Alumni Award, Boston College Law School; the 2016 recipient of the Dean's Award for Diversity, Boston College Law School; the 2015 recipient of the Ruth-Arlene W. Howe Black Student Initiative Inaugural Award, Boston College Law School; the 2015 recipient of The Honorable Justice Roderick L. Ireland Leadership and Juvenile Advocacy Award, Massachusetts Black Lawyers Association; and the 2011 recipient of the Jacob and Bella Thurman Award for Social Citizenship, Brandeis University. In 2016, she was the Public Interest Designation Fellow, Boston College Law School.

Taisha received her J.D. from Boston College Law School and her B.A., cum laude, from Brandeis University.