

Senior Associate-level Real Estate Transactional Attorney

Johnson & Borenstein, LLC
Andover

Senior associate level real estate transactional attorney sought by Johnson & Borenstein, LLC, a successful, mid-sized, real estate and real estate litigation focused law firm located in Andover, MA. Candidates should have 4+ years' experience representing clients in real estate transactions including drafting of purchase and sales agreements, deeds, closing documents for residential transactions, condominium documents, easements, restrictions, and review of title abstracts. Successful candidate will have the opportunity to work closely with 3 highly experienced paralegals and the rest of our expert team on various projects and transactions. Admission to the MA bar is required, NH bar admission or willingness to seek admission to the NH bar is a plus.

We have an established and successful practice representing a diverse group of clients including, local and national developers; banks and other lenders; large and small property owners; and building professionals and tradespeople active in the residential and commercial real estate markets of eastern MA and southern NH.

If you have the necessary skills and experience, come join our experienced team of real estate law professionals, to practice in a friendly, low-ego environment, with an emphasis on client satisfaction and work/life balance. Visit us at www.JBlclaw.com

Portable billings are not required.

Respond in confidence to Don@jblclaw.com and Mark@jblclaw.com